

Direct and Reported Speech

Part A: Converting direct to reported speech

Turn this dialogue into reported speech.

“We’re in an awful situation,” Tom moaned.

“I agree,” said Alice, “but I know of someone who may be able to help us.”

“Who is it?” Tom asked eagerly.

“I’m not sure I can tell you,” Alice replied.

“You can trust me,” said Tom. “I’ll be really careful.”

“Stay quiet and let me think,” Alice ordered.

Part B: Converting reported to direct speech

This time, the conversation is in reported speech. Try to reconstruct the original dialogue, using direct speech throughout.

Remember: New speaker, new line!

Alice said she now thought she knew what to do. Tom immediately asked her what her plan was, but Alice replied that she didn’t have a plan yet; she was going to ask the person she had been talking about.

Tom asked whether she could tell him who it was. Alice told him not to worry and that he would find out very soon. Tom said that he would carry on clearing up the mess, as there was milkshake everywhere.

Did you remember “New speaker, new line?”
